

Attachment I

In certain circumstances, customers making a long distance call may experience a short delay as the call is set up. However, if you experience issues with successfully completing long distance calls, you may contact your long distance provider for investigation. If Frontier is your long distance provider, you may call (952) 491-5534 to report long distance calling failures.